

A close-up photograph of two flowers. On the left is a vibrant purple flower with five petals and a yellow center. On the right is a bright yellow flower with five petals. The background is dark and out of focus. White text is overlaid on the image, reading: "2nd Kings 23:14 And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men."

2nd Kings 23:14 And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.