

Nehemiah 01:07 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

A single orange and red daisy flower with a green stem, set against a dark purple background. The flower is positioned on the left side of the image, with its head facing right. The petals are a mix of bright orange and deep red, radiating from a dark green center. The stem is green and appears to have small leaves or bracts. The background is a solid, dark purple color.