

The background of the image shows two monarch butterflies perched on a green plant stem. The butterflies have orange and black wings with white spots. The plant has several green leaves, some of which are in sharp focus while others are blurred in the background. The overall scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day in a garden or field.

Luke 19:30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you ; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither .
